

Regulations of Use of the Educational Trails and Weather Stations

§1 General provisions

1. The Regulations define the rules for the use by children and adults of the educational trails and weather stations "Środowisko Wiedza i Alternatywne Technologie (ŚWiAT) [Environment, Knowledge and Alternative Technologies] - Local Centre of Weather Stations and Natural Science Knowledge, managed by the Starostwo Powiatowe w Gnieźnie [Gniezno County Office] (Governing Authority).
2. The rules set out herein are intended to ensure full safety for people staying on the premises.
3. The Governing Authority shall not be responsible for personal belongings and other items left behind on the educational trails and in the weather station.

§2 Rules of use

1. All children under 12 years of age must be accompanied by an adult.
2. The meteorological devices located on the premises may only be used/operated by authorised persons; Visitors are not allowed to open the covers or doors of the meteorological instruments.
3. The water well hatch may only be opened by authorised persons.
4. The teachers, guardians and parents shall be responsible for the safety of children/pupils/students during their stay in the premises.
5. Any noticed irregularities should be immediately reported to the Governing Authority and the Maintenance Staff.
6. The teachers/guardians shall be obliged to inform children about the applicable safety regulations and to require their observance.
7. Under no circumstances should children be left unattended on the premises.
8. It is allowed to conduct lessons/classes on the premises; additional equipment, if necessary, may be brought in for this purpose.
9. In the event of an accident, medical assistance should be provided to the injured child, then the Governing Authority and the child's parents/guardians should be notified.

10. The educational trails and the weather have been equipped with 24/7 security cameras for day/night monitoring and recording.
11. The processing of personal data in video surveillance system is necessary for the purposes arising from legitimate interests pursued by the Governing Authority, i.e. ensuring security and protection of property.
12. The data controller is the Governing Authority.
13. On the premises it is forbidden to:
 - a. climb roofs, wooden structures and equipment,
 - b. open the water well hatch,
 - c. disassemble of weather equipment or devices and open the doors of the weather station,
 - d. litter on the premises,
 - e. light bonfires and use open flames,
 - f. play football and other team games
 - g. drink alcohol, smoking cigarettes and using other drugs,
 - h. use the premises after dark.
14. Dogs or other animals are not allowed on the premises.
15. Cyclists must park their bicycles in designated spots (bicycle racks).

Governing Authority

Starostwo Powiatowe w Gnieźnie
[Gniezno County Office]
9/10 Papieża Jana Pawła II Street
62-200 Gniezno
Phone number: 61 424 07 41

EMERGENCY NUMBERS: 112-EU EMERGENCY NUMBER 997-POLICE 998-FIRE BRIGADE 999-EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES

